The Press vs. The President!

Politics and the press collide spectacularly in David Frost's 1977 landmark interviews of Former President Richard Nixon. What happens behind the television cameras is just as engaging as in front where image is king and the stakes have never been higher. Starring Oklahoma favorites, Matthew Alvin Brown and D. Lance Marsh, this timely, dramatic look at the Nixon Presidency post-Watergate television interviews is sure to leave you on the edge of your seat even though you know the ending.
