Producing Artistic Director's Welcome

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma's production of Master Class by the great American playwright, Terrence McNally. We are so glad you are joining us this evening for this special play about art and the sometimes difficult work it takes to bring it to fruition. I am so pleased to introduce you to my friend, the wonderful actress Natalie Cordone, in the role of opera star Maria Callas, and a cadre of outstanding up-and-coming opera stars. In addition, I am thankful to be working with Jan McDaniel as music director and in the role of Manny. His knowledge of opera and lifetime of work in the field has made the rehearsal process especially rich and inspiring. Directing an actual two-act play, on a beautiful set designed by Uldarico Sarmiento with costumes by Jeffrey Meek, lights by Fabian J. Garcia, and sound design by Corey Ray, has been a step forward toward bringing back the type of theatre we might have taken for granted until recently. I hope you enjoy this theatrical portrait of the collaboration that occurs at each performance between the artists on stage and you, the audience.

For those of you new to Lyric as well as long-time patrons, I'd like to share with you some things you might not know about us. Based here in Oklahoma City, Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma is the state's largest, resident, live-theatre, producing classic and contemporary musicals and plays on two indoor stages as well: the historic 281-seat Plaza Theatre and the 2,477-seat Civic Center Music Hall. We are excited to return to both venues in 2022. Founded in 1963, Lyric Theatre is Oklahoma's flagship theatre, serving more than 100,000 people statewide annually. Lyric Theatre employs locally and from across the nation more than 350 actors, musicians, artists, carpenters, scenic artists and technicians presenting 200+ individual performances. Our productions attract audiences from 305 Oklahoma cities and towns, plus attendees living in 3,504 zip codes across 50 states, Washington D.C., Puerto Rico and Canada. In addition, our revenue is reinvested back into the city and state's economy through supplies and labor for sets, costumes, props, lighting, sound and sales taxes on ticket sales. Did you know many Broadway stars have gotten their start and returned to perform in our shows? Kristin Chenoweth, Kelli O'Hara, Megan Mullally, Chita Rivera, Beth Level, Emily Skinner, Tommy Tune, Dee Hoty, Billy Porter and many others have performed on Lyric's stages.

Finally this year, our outdoor adventures continue at the historic Harn Homestead for Lyric's nationally-acclaimed, immersive production of Lyric's A Christmas Carol. We look forward to seeing you back with us this holiday season!

We are here because of you and the support of our great city. We are Oklahoma Strong, both onstage and off. I thank you for believing in Lyric and the importance of the arts. And now, enjoy the fresh air and an evening with the great diva Maria Callas!

Yours truly,

Michael Baron Producing Artistic Director

He is a board member for the National Alliance for Musical Theatre.

JIM REYNOLDS (Managing Director) joined Lyric Theatre as Managing Director in 2017. He has an accomplished background in arts management, marketing, public relations, project management, strategic planning and customer service. He comes to Lyric from ZACH Theatre in Austin, TX where he held the marketing and public relations director position for 25 years. During his tenure, Jim was an integral part of the theatre's success as it grew from an annual operating budget of $550,000 to $8,000,000 during which time the organization opened two new theatre facilities. Prior to that, he was the sales director at Dallas Theater Center, under the artistic leadership of Adrian Hall who is often hailed as a founding father of the American regional theatre movement. Fresh from the University of South Carolina, he served as house manager and ultimately the production business manager at the Alliance Theatre/Atlanta Children's Theatre, the Southeast's leading regional theatre. Jim currently volunteers as Board Chair of the Plaza Business Alliance, which promotes business success in the historic Plaza District.
