

WIDOW DOUGLAS #1

2. Looka Here Huck

(Widow Douglas, Judge Thatcher, Ens.)

Roger Miller

Arr. W. Yanesh

Cue: HUCK: She allowed that she'd send me to school and sivilize me."

WD: Huckleberry, where in the world have you been?

HUCK: Staying after school to help the teacher. (music)

WD: Not likely.

Strict march $\text{♩} = 88$

WD: You played hookey and went fishing, if I know a thing or two. Whatever am I going to do with you? But--land sakes, you haven't even had your supper yet. Jim, give the boy a plate.

[VAMP]

START

Very freely (recit.)

12 mf

Look - a here, Huck, do you wan - na be a grown - up? Do you wan - na be a grown - up? Then I'll tell you right now: You

15

2. Looka Here Huck

18

bet - ter eat your spin - ach and you bet - ter eat your turn - ips, Or you'll rit.

Tempo I (march)

21

nev - er be a grown - up, 'cause you won't know how.

WIDOW:

25

You may think that the whole thing is sil - ly. But it is - n't sil - ly, real - ly. I can tell you right now: If you

ENSEMBLE: (under)

p Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Right now Huck!

p Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Right now Huck!

p Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Huck Right now Huck!

29

don't learn your read - in' and you don't learn your writ - in', Then you'll

Huck Huck Huck Huck

Huck Huck Huck Huck

Huck Huck Huck Huck

29

31

nev - er be a grown - up, 'cause you won't know how.

Huck 'cause you won't know how.

Huck 'cause you won't know how.

Huck 'cause you won't know how.

31

END